

LOCALIZE THE MOVEMENT FOR GLOBAL JUSTICE!

RALLY & DEMONSTRATE! Sept. 25-26, 2000

Across the U.S. and around the world, activists will demand economic and social justice as the International Monetary Fund and World Bank meet in Prague. In over 50 U.S. cities and more than 25 countries, events will link local struggles to destructive IMF/World Bank policies and their impact on communities, jobs and the environment.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, WORLD BANK/IMF

12:00 NOON, 18th & Penn., NW, press conference protesting globalization, privatization and outsourcing policies promoted and imposed by the IMF and the World Bank. Join Jobs with Justice in presenting a bill to the World Bank for $2 trillion, representing economic output lost by developing countries in 1999 due to low growth during two decades of globalization.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, D.C. PUBLIC SCHOOLS HQ

4:00 PM, 825 North Capitol St., NE, rally to protest conditions in the DC public school system, its administration's failure to negotiate with the system's 1,400 union workers and the World Bank's imposition of user fees on primary education in developing countries.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, PARKING GARAGE WORKERS

7:30 AM, 19th & L, NW. Rally to support parking garage workers at InterParking. Support workers' right to organize in the U.S. and abroad.
