

IT'S YOUR TURN!

Noon March for Peace at Farragut Square
Tuesday, December 10, International Human Rights Day

Say No to War in Iraq!

Join senior citizens, members of the faith community and DC peace activists for a rally and march to send the Bush administration a clear message that violence does not bring peace.

Our plans call for a noontime rally at Farragut Square (Farragut North Metro, 17th and Connecticut Avenue NW) followed by a march east on K St., south on 16th St., west on H St., then north on 17th St., to Farragut.
